

Proactive Release

Submissions on the Child and Youth Wellbeing Strategy

August 2019

The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet has released the following submission received during its public consultation on the child and youth wellbeing strategy.

Some of the information contained within this release is considered to not be appropriate to release and, if requested, would be withheld under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act).

- Where this is the case, the information has been withheld, and the relevant section of the Act that would apply, has been identified.
- Where information has been withheld, no public interest has been identified that would outweigh the reasons for withholding it.

Key to redaction codes and their reference to sections of the Act:

- 9(2)a – Section 9(2)(a): to protect the privacy of natural persons, including deceased people.

An external party holds copyright on this material and therefore its re-use cannot be licensed by the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet.

Child and Youth Wellbeing Strategy – Submission Template

This document is intended for individuals or groups who wish to make a formal submission on the child and youth wellbeing strategy.

Please complete this template and email it to: childandyouthwellbeing@dpmc.govt.nz

A guide to making a submission is available on the DPMC website <https://dpmc.govt.nz/our-programmes/child-and-youth-wellbeing-strategy>

Submissions will close on Wednesday 5 December.

Please provide details for a contact person in case we have some follow up questions.

Contact Name:	Anna Holyoake
Email Address:	president@nzdha.co.nz
Phone Number:	9(2) (a)
Organisation Name:	New Zealand Dental Hygienists' Association
Organisation description: (tell us about your organisation – i.e. who do you represent? How many members do you have? Are you a local or national organisation?)	The NZ Dental Hygienists' Association is a national organisation which represents and supports dental hygienists, oral health therapists and dental therapists. Founded in 1993, we represent over 600 registered oral health professionals throughout Aotearoa. We strongly advocate for the importance of preventive oral health care and promote the interests of our members.
Executive Summary: (Please provide a short summary of the key points of your Submission - 200 words)	New Zealand Dental Hygienists' Association applauds the Prime Minister and the Ministry for embarking on this journey to better the lives of our tamariki/rangatahi. Our eleven point action plan for the Child and Youth Wellbeing strategy are: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. To introduce school based toothbrushing programs that are funded and well resourced so that children are learning good oral hygiene habits regardless of their home environments. 2. Fund basic dental care for expectant mothers as the oral health of the mother and their bacterial load determines the oral health of the newborn. 3. Increase training positions for oral health therapists to ensure the Community Oral Health Service is able to provide efficient and effective services to children and

	young people. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 4. Fund more training positions for special care dentists so that children with challenging behaviour and disabilities are supported appropriately for their oral health needs. 5. Remove the GST off dental treatment and fresh produce to make healthy food more affordable. 6. Introduce taxes on unhealthy foods and beverages. 7. Reduce junk food advertising on mainstream media and social media 8. Legislate sponsorships from multinational companies that promote sugar sweetened beverages by sponsoring major NZ sporting teams. 9. Fund a national roll out of toothbrushes and toothpaste for low income whānau. 10. Mandate the Ministry of Health to look at new oral health strategy as the last one is 10 years old and lacks relevancy in some of its action areas. 11. Make community water fluoridation compulsory
--	--

Please note that your submission will become official information. This means that the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet may be required to release all or part of the information contained in your submission in response to a request under the Official Information Act 1982.

The Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet may withhold all or parts of your submission if it is necessary to protect your privacy or if it has been supplied subject to an obligation of confidence.

Please tell us if you don't want all or specific parts of your submission released, and the reasons why. Your views will be taken into account in deciding whether to withhold or release any information requested under the Official Information Act and in deciding if, and how, to refer to your submission in any possible subsequent paper prepared by the Department.